Beautiful stone house

DESCRIPTION

Charming portion of stone house set in the heart of the medieval village of Bagnone, overlooking the gentle waters of the river that flows through the town. The property has been recently renovated with great care, preserving its authentic character and original features.

Arranged over two levels, the house comprises on first floor an entrance hall leading to a kitchen with a delightful small terrace, perfect for relaxing moments, a bright living room, a bedroom, and a bathroom. On second floor, there is a further bedroom, a bathroom with a laundry corner, and a convenient storage room.

The air conditioning and heating is electric equipped with heating, ensuring comfort throughout the year.
